STOCKS QUICKLY RESPOND TO GOLD ENGAGEMENT

ASSURANCE OF RELIEF FROM STRINGENCY.

Prices Touch Highest Point in Final Hour When Market Broadens.

New York, Sept. 12.—The response of stocks to the engagement of gold for im-port was testimony to the importance attached to the question of relief from a attached to the question of relief from a possible stringercy of money. The advance was decisive and comprehensive, following promptly on the announcement of the engagement.

It was the common belief that to-day's engagement of $1.20,000 was preliminary to an extended inward movement of gold. It was as a symptom of conditions which made this nossible that the development was effective rather than from the amount involved. The fear was gaining ground in stock market circles that insuperable obstacles would be opposed to the relinquishment of gold held as banking reserves in the great foreign money centers.

FOREIGN LOANS.

The obvious intention of the Russian Government to float a large learn the possibility of additional borrowings by Janan and the announcement of a large number of smaller floancial undertakings which had evidently been delayed until the coming of peace, pointed to the possibility that these claims for credits would have priority over others.

The course of our own money markets for the last few weeks has made it perfectly evident that without some additional resources the extraordinary demand for funds would exhaust the banking reserves to an extent that would cause great tersion in the money market and possible disaster to over-extended esseculation. It is now demonstrated that the outward ocurse of our commodities has established a sufficient volume of credits abroad so that the domestic money markets have a resort for relief in case of urgent necessity. The effect on speculative sentiment was pronounced. The sold seems to have been secured upon its arrival from South Africa in London, after rather active competition and the present supply available for import seems limited.

The outer of currency from New York in other directions also continues very large. The Subtreasury has absorbed already since the last bank statement £531.
Shirments by express are still going to the interior and £50.00 was deposited at the Subtreasury for telegraphic transfer to San Francisco.

MONEY RATES.

transfer to San Francisco.

MONEY RATES.

Time money rates continue to advance in New York and borrowers on oull are naving of their obligations and taking out time loans. Discount rates in London rose amin ro-day, but at Berlin there was a slight recession in spite of vesterday's advance in the Imperial Bank rate. The volume of tealings to-day expanded somewhat, but was attributed very largely to perfessional sources.

Commission houses complained of the lifeless outside demand in stocks. The Wenther Bureau's weekly cross bulletin confirmed life prevailing confidence over the grain crop, especially the corn cross and the corn curriers were relatively atreager than the rest of the list. This special massement in Bloom-Berthel's Recipied Steel was due to the declaration of a steek dividend.

Louis followed suit and throughout the entire session local traders kept their eyes upon the quotations from the former city, and the dial here moved almost in accord with them. In Chicago it was almost a one-man market. Traders appeared to be awaiting in fear and doubt for the next move of Armour. It is known that he has a heavy line of wheat, and any selling which was thought-to be for him would tend Europe increase 2,516,600 bu. The weather in the Northwest is generally favor for harvesting. It was reported cooler, with the forecast for a further de-temperature. Frest was predicted for Minnesota and North Dakota. Private advices state that wheat at stations in the Northwest is greater than over be and that in a very short time the railroads will be taxed to their full one ing is near at hand. They claim that the short interest has been well cover and many who were on that side have bought wheat which they will soon have to place on the market.
